

The Nicholls Lecture Series

Friday 6th September	Ms Katherine Rutherford, OB Graduate Stakeholder Engagement Consultant This is what Chat GPT said about my Degree: Mapping out Careers in Geography and Social Science
Friday 13th September	Mr Jonathan Bagley Managing Director, Trustland Construction Why Uncertainty about your Career Path is Okay and How Exploration Can Enrich the End Results
Friday 20th September	Mr Andrew Crofts Ghost Writer Making a Career as a Freelance Writer
Friday 27th September	Dr Keri Nixon Consultant Forensic Psychologist Forensic Psychology and the Assessment of Risk
Friday 4th October	Dr James Butcher Scholarly Publishing Consultant Scholarship in the Age of Artificial Intelligence
Friday 11th October	Mr Martin Wilson, OB Head of Content, Researcher Services, Taylor & Francis Publishers US Elections: Truth from Fiction
Friday 18th October	Professor Tim Cable Director of the Institute of Sport, Manchester Metropolitan University The Science Behind Developing Elite Athletes
Friday 8th November	Dr Scott Murray Consultant Cardiologist Outsmart your Heart
Friday 15th November	Mrs Joanna Kingston-Davies Co-founder and co-owner of the MAPD Group Learning to Dance in the Rain: Taking Risks, Finding your 'Why' and Loving your Career
Friday 22nd November	Dr Emily Clarke Consultant in Genitourinary Medicine & HIV A History of HIV: Past, Present & Future
Friday 29th November	Mr Michael McGrath, OB Special Adviser, Child Safety Online Taskforce, NSPCC Confusion, Chaos and Clarity - Lessons in Life & Career
Friday 6th December	Mr Josh Stirrett, OB Director, ResourceryGroup.com Managing Change: Adaptability & Resilience

Programme